SUBJECT: Weekly Memo – Week Ending January 22, 2010

You will be receiving an update on various District activities today at the Board meeting. This memo will transmit the departmental weekly updates to you. Please call me if you have any questions.

Operations Committee Meeting

The Operations Committee met last Thursday with the private pest control companies. I thought the meeting went well with a good exchange of information and views. The Operations Committee will be meeting again on February 4 at 3:15 p.m. to continue its discussion. One complicating factor is the scheduled reorganization of all committees scheduled for the Board meeting of February 18.

Mid-Year Budget Review

Staff has begun the Mid-Year Budget Review and preparation of the Five-Year Financial Model. Although there are financial challenges, the District's operations will remain stable for the foreseeable future. This financial review will be presented in detail to the Board at our meeting of February 18.
